Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Abstract

The abstract is objected because of the numerous instances in which the applicant references the intended use of the claimed invention. The abstract should not refer to purported merits or speculative applications of the invention and should not compare the invention with the prior art. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The recitation "correlating to the length and height dimensions of letter size and legal-size file folders" in claim 3, renders the claim indefinite. In particular, file folders are not an element of the claimed device, and it is improper to seek to define claimed structure based on a comparison to some unclaimed element, especially one, such as file folders, which varies on dimension. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Evenson (US 4,535,896). Evenson discloses an extensible (Figures 4-5) holder (10), with a structure (12,14, 34), having extensible walls (16), correlating to the dimensions of letter and legal size documents (Figure 5) and able to maintain file folders in an upright position, preserving space for future removal or placement of file folders.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Josephson (5,871,142). Josephson discloses a collapsible container (Figures 1-4) correlating to the dimensions of legal and letter size documents (Specification, column 4, lines 44-50), that is able to maintain file folders in an upright position, preserving space for future removal or placement of file folders.

Art Unit: 3634

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure: Schlesinger (US 6,705,473), Foster (US 5,833,271) and Bluemle (5,398,866), all disclose inventions that are capable of performing the applicant's desired task.
